

Suzie

Goes To School

Written by Charlotte Olson
Illustrated by Nick Roberts

Where is Suzie going on this beautiful, bright and sunny day?

Suzie is holding Mummy's hand as they walk on their way.

Did you know, it's a very, very exciting day today?

Suzie is going to her new school, Hooray Hooray

They arrive at the gates, look at all the girls and boys,
Suzie hides behind her Mummy, there is a lot of noise.
Mrs Walker, her teacher, comes over and says “hello”,
“Lets get in the line with the others, it’s nearly time to go”.

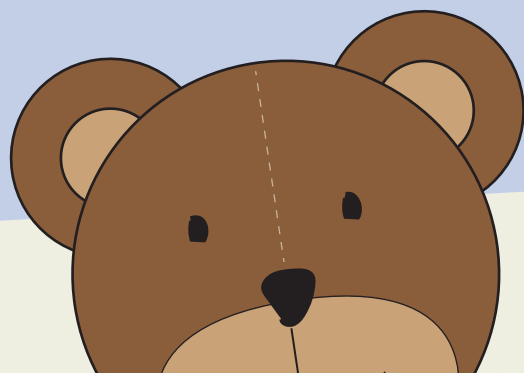

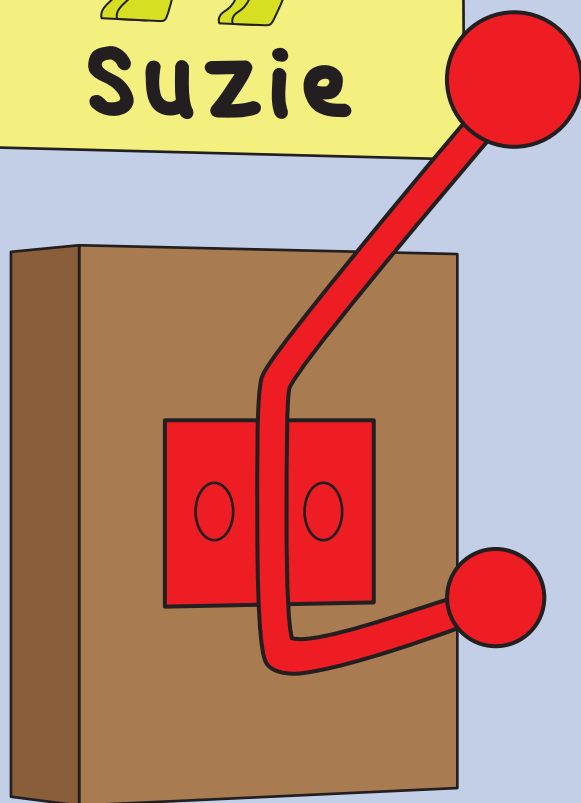

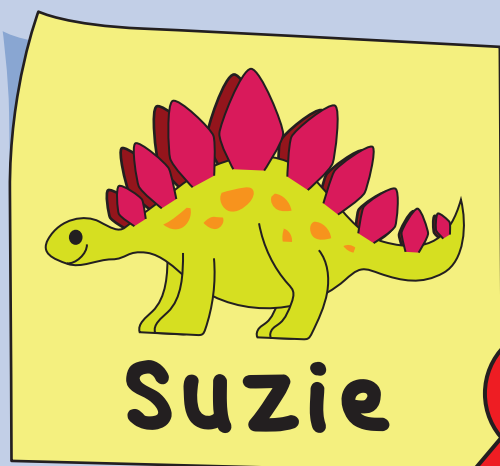

Mummy gives Suzie an extra big hug and a big wave goodbye,
They are both feeling sad, but don't worry, it's ok to have a cry.

She soon feels much better as her friend Sammy is here too,
They walk together, holding hands at the front of the queue.

The school building is big with many windows and doors,
Can you find your peg? With your name and dinosaurs?

They hang up their coats and sit together on the mat,
Mrs Walker is taking the register, SSSShhhh, don't chat.
All the children are sitting quietly and wait to hear their name,
Suzie, with her teddy and Sammy, with his toy aeroplane.

It's music time and Mrs Walker puts an instrument in their hands,
Banging, tooting and whistling, what a wonderful marching band.

The room is getting very noisy as it's time to go out and play,
“Let's get our coats and go outside”, they hear Mrs Walker say.
The children are very excited and wait in a line to go outside,
Well done Sammy and Suzie, taking turns to go down the slide.

Mrs Walker rings the bell, telling the children it's time to go back,
Everyone is feeling very hungry, time for a drink and a snack.
Lots of delicious fruit being shared, there's enough for everyone.
What lovely manners you children have, kind words too, well done.

Sammy and Suzie were hungry and teddy was too,
The children stay at the table, they have some work to do.
Mrs Walker hands out some pencils and paper to everyone,
Sammy draws his aeroplane and Suzie draws teddy in the sun.
Suzie loves to draw and colour, she chooses one pencil at a time,
“Careful colouring Suzie, can you keep inside the line”?

The children put their drawings away and wash their hands for lunch, Suzie and Sammy have a lunchbox each, mmmmm, yummy food to munch. The children are chattering and eating, everyone is sat in their chair, Suzie opens her box, a sandwich, yoghurt, chocolate cake and a juicy pear.

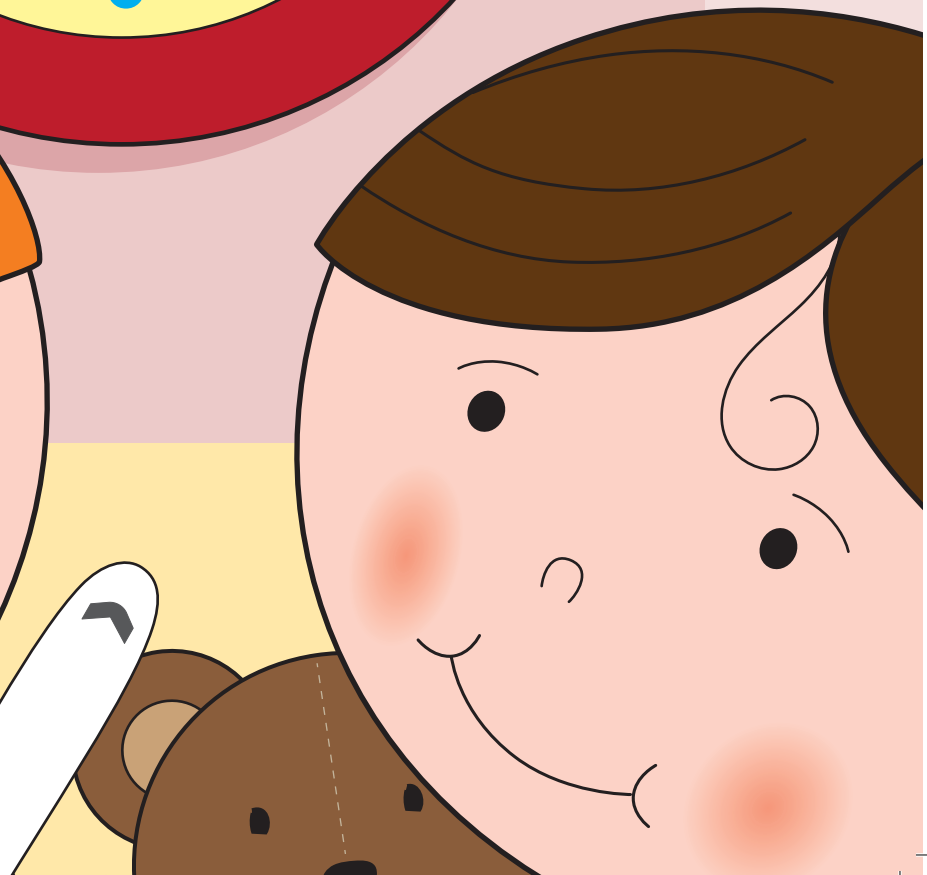

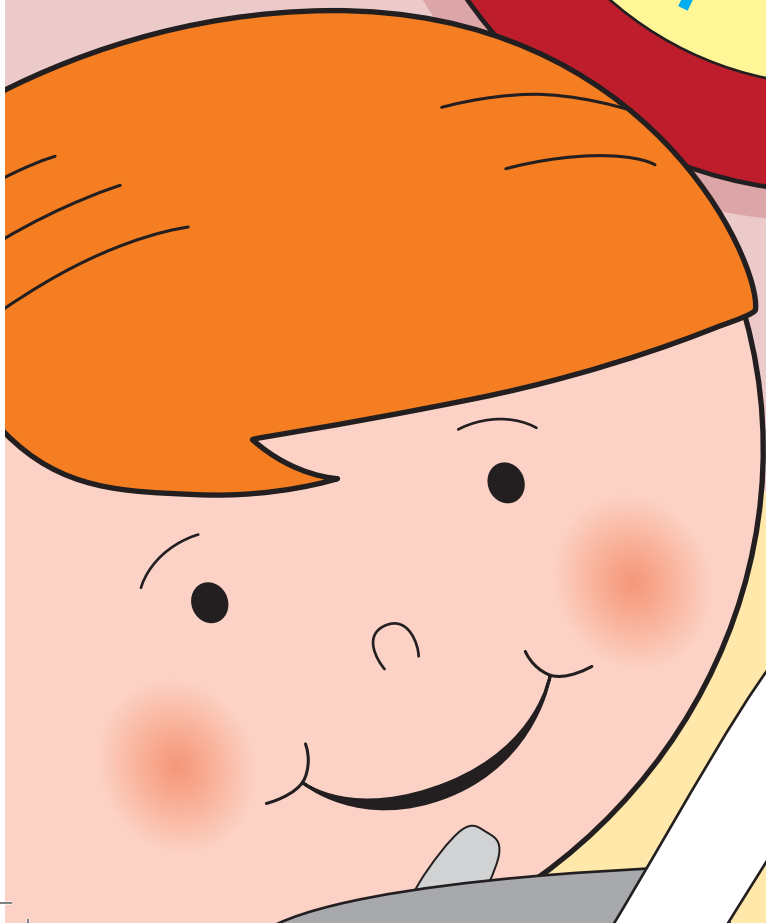

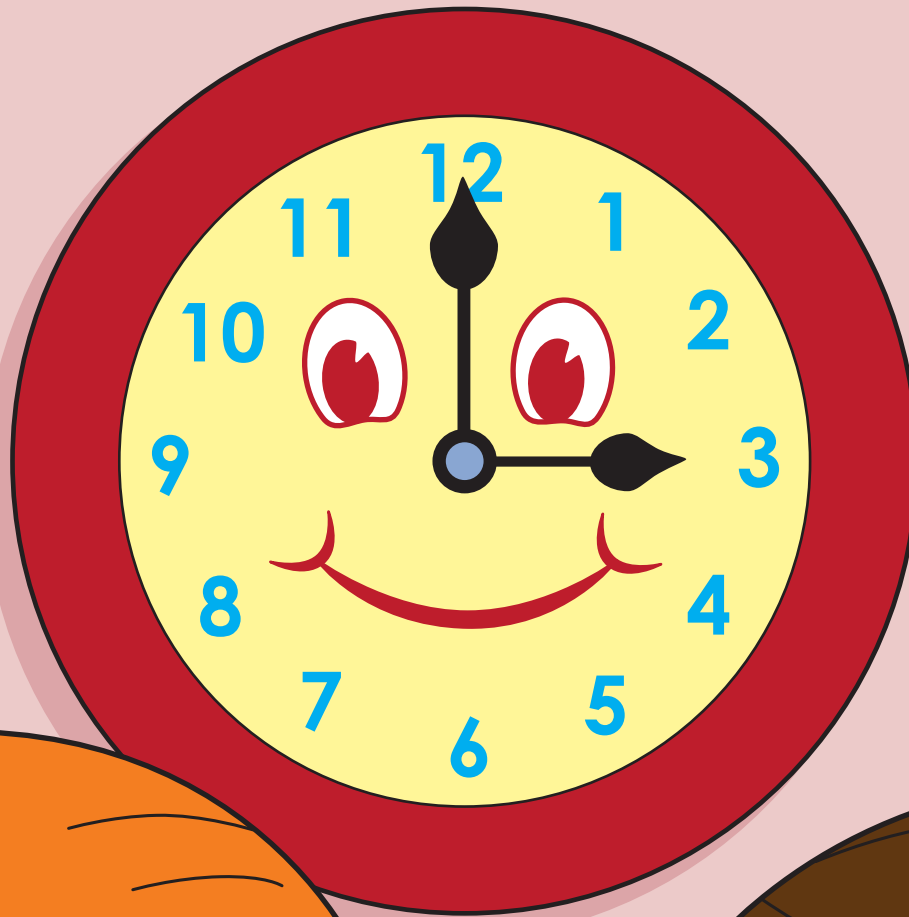

A quick play in the playground before the teacher rings the bell,
Suzie and Sammy are excited, it will soon be time for “show and tell”.

One by one, the children proudly stand up and show their toys,
It's Suzie's turn to show teddy, he waves to the girls and boys.

It's the end of the day and the classroom clock strikes three,
Suzie cannot wait to go outside and see her Daddy and Mummy.

Suzie can't wait to tell Mummy and Daddy about what she has done,
And how in the morning she was a little scared but school was such fun.
A kiss and a hug with Mummy and Daddy, Suzie has enjoyed her day,
Suzie and Sammy liked their new school and teacher too.

Hooray
Hooray

